“ Jackie was one of a kind. She had a kind and caring heart. We had a lot laughs together. Sorry to hear of your passing. Heaven got some more of its happiness back the day you came home.

“ I spoke with Jackie when I was needing to set up pick up appts. at Mohawk. She was always happy and joy to speak with. I'm sure she touched a lot of hearts and she did mine. The good Lord will be lucky to have her home.

“ Jackie and I were friends years ago when we both worked at Econ Carpet Mills back in the Early 70's. We became good friends until I left there. We would ride together to work and work on the same shifts. She was the machine operator and started out being her creeler, then more to be her inspector. We had lots of fun back then she never look at me as being of a diffrent race or color it did not had anything to do with our friendship then. We diftered away I have been trying for years to find her. Sorry for the lost of time. Very sadden for your and mine too.

Sincerely,
Janice Rivers
