“ I have fond memories of Jamie at CSE as her 3rd grade teacher. She was a beautiful child who was creative and smart. That 3rd grade year, I had two Jamie's in my room, both of which kept me on my toes. She was a wonderful student. I wish your family well and lots of prayers.

“ I've known Jamie, Jennifer, and her for many years. I remember the times we played on a women's softball team together. Jamie was aggressive and full of energy and when something happened Jennifer was right there to back her sister up. That's how it's been for as long as I've known this family. So much love between the two of them. Jamie I know you were loved to the fullest and will be missed by many. Rest with no more pain. Fly high with the angels.

“ Jaime has always been a bundle of fire. I remember during one of her dad's softball tournaments in Middle Tennessee, everyone was swimming and lounging by the pool. All of a sudden the ear-piercing screams of Jaime were breaking the sound barrier as she was vehemently expressing to her dad that no way was she jumping in that pool, even to his waiting arms. I remember those long lashes flapping on her big huge eyes. Mike just shook his head and said, "Lordy." Then Jaime happily skipped away, laughing. It still makes me laugh. We all loved her.
