“ Barbara, I met you at our 50th high school reunion. Jim and I were great friends during our senior year. From Homecoming Queen and Jim the big time football player to the Military Ball, where Jim was an officer . We just had a great time together. We totally lost contact after high school and I was so glad to see him at the reunion. It was so much fun to get to talk to him( and meet you) and even dance a little bit.

*I am so very sorry for your loss. He was a such a nice, caring guy and I know he will be missed. Even though I haven't seen him in years, I will miss him. My thoughts and prayers are with your family.
Love, Joy Whitten Ward CHS class of 1964*
