

James "Randy" Cheatwood

August 29, 1955 - January 30, 2025

James "Randy" Cheatwood, age 69, resident of LaFayette, Georgia, passed away on Thursday, January 30, 2025 at PruittHealth, LaFayette, Georgia. Randy, son of the late Jim B Cheatwood and Joy Dean Baggett Cheatwood, was born August 29, 1955 in Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia. After graduating from Dade County High School in 1973, he began working as an artist for TPC Printing and Packaging. After several years, he then began working at Walmart in Fort Oglethorpe until his retirement. He attended the Methodist Church. Randy had a strong passion towards music and art. He enjoyed listening to heavy rock music; watching NASCAR, particularly Dale Earnhardt; and collecting matchbox cars. The family remembers him as a man who loved music and art – one who talk to anyone.

Randy is survived by two sisters, Pamela (Steve) Wallin and Belinda (Woody) Woodruff; two brothers, Terry (Kim) Cheatwood and Jeff Cheatwood; several nieces; nephews; great-nieces; great-nephews' many other relatives and friends.

Private services will be held at a later date.

Arrangements by W.L Wilson & Sons Funeral Home 555 West Cloud Springs Road, Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia.

Tribute Wall

KH

“ My deepest condolences and sympathy for the loss of your beloved Randy. I heard of his passing from cousin, Yvonne. May God bless all of you with His comfort in the days ahead. (Jim Cheatwood is brother to my mom Bobbie)

Karen E Holshouser - February 02, 2025 at 09:51 AM