“ I remember about 21 years ago, I worked at lakeside restaurant. I waited on James and his family for years. He and his sons would call me Fairchild because that's what Daryl the owner of the restaurant had Nick named me. I was white as a ghost and had long blonde hair. I became close with Lamar. We have had a friendship throughout the years. His grand daughter nicole is also special to me. Through the years James always remembered me. I am thankful for the memories and the friends I've made. It all started with " hey, how y'all doing" "can I take your order" by the way James orderd hamburger steak most of the time. :) God speed his love to you all. Love, Fairchild.

I remember taking Mama to Betty Ann and James' house, they would always have plenty of food cooked and it was so good. Smile down on your family because you were loved by them all.

You were not just my uncle your house was my safe place no matter what i did back in my stupid days i could come there you would just shake your head and tell me to go to bed. You would give the shirt off your back to anyone who needed it. I will miss you Peepaw. Just know how much you are loved.
