“ Saying goodbye is never easy, but when you know that its not really goodbye and you have no regrets it makes the pain a little easier. I knew Little James as a friend way before he became my step brother. He was a true friend and had any ones back especially if they were in need. His smile and laughter could change they way the whole room was running. There were many times that his simple acts of kindness had saved my life and I wish that I could have repaid him by being there for him. While we all grieve because he isn't here I know that he would say " Don't cry for me im riding on streets of gold." Our hearts are saddened because he isn't here with us but we will carry special memories in our hearts forever. May God bring comfort to the many broken hearts and peace of mind knowing he is resting easy with the King. Prayers and thoughts with love for Jen and the kids.
We will miss you bro

“ From the first time I met James in 1995 at the Silver Star Outlaw "house" in Tongduchon, South Korea it was clear he could light up the room and was the type of guy that would take the time to talk to anyone. He was the type of person that would help anyone out, even at his own cost. Even though we parted ways after two years, he continued to be a good friend and great father to Julia and will be sadly missed.

“ It's been about 11 years ago since we actually talked. I remember me coming up to the dj booth at Paradise to ask you to play one of my favorites songs. You would smile and say it's coming up no matter how much you hated hearing "I gotta get through this" by Daniel Bedingfield every single night. Here's to you making the world a happier place and making smiles appear. Now I will get out my cd and play it for you :)

“ Jennifer you have had the pleasure of knowing Lucky and being his wife. I've just had the option of knowing him as a fellow biker. He was a great guy always with a smile on his face and a hug to give. I wish he had had the opportunity to join our club. HIs face, his smile, his energy always lit up a room. I don't really recall my first memory of meeting Lucky but I know it probably was a good one. I remember going on several charitiy rides with him and coming to his birthday bash last year at the Hard Knocks Clubhouse.He was a great man and he will surely be missed by all the biker community. I am so sorry for your loss. I cannot imagine what it feels like to have to lose someone you love so much. Our FORSAKEN MC family will always be there for you if you need us. We will be there for you this week and we will come with our hearts heavy losing a brother. Just know that the Fosaken's loved Lucky as if he were one of our own.
Love,
Stacey

“ James, You have always been a loving friend and always fun to be around. I will miss our conversations. My warmest thoughts and prayers go out to your family. I know things have gotten so busy with us throughout the years, but you were always there if I needed you. I know Nikki and I will think about you always. If everyone in this world would show a little bit of your love and understanding, this world would be a better place. I will always keep you and your family close in my heart. Love You Bro. See you when I get there.
