“ There are so many of us cousins, we're very blessed. James Terry was in the "older" age group, he was "cool" to us, or at least to me lol ❤️ I remember him wrestling on channel 12 and Granny watching it. I thought it was funny and cool. I was probably 8 - 10 years old. My fondest memory of him is the day he married Tony and I. That meant the world to me, and the talk he had with me before he married Tony and I showed me he was a good man and he loved God and Jesus and his wife, Denise. Terry loved a lot of people. He will be missed. Praying for all his family and friends.
