“ I worked with Jim and he always had something humorous to say. He was a generous man that always shared free Kettle Corn with everyone despite his business expenditures. Very generous and loved his community.

“ I did not know James Jack Hornady. I knew him as a child Jimmie Lee Sneed. I don't know where the Lee came from. He and I are cousins. I am so glad to read here on this tribute wall, and on James Jack Hornady's Facebook page; how his life touched and blessed others. I wish we could have known one another better. It was not possible, but thanks to God's Grace, we got through. Cousin Ronald (Ronnie) Winfield Lane, Knoxville, Tennessee. God Bless you all.

I just learned of Jim's death. My health has kept me from going to the market where my late WW2 husband and I went every Sunday. Jim was so sweet to Bob. He never would let a veteran pay for the popcorn (which was always the best),. We always had to sneak tips in. We loved him and Elaine and I am just in shock and so sad. God bless you Elaine and the rest of the family. Mary Roser

“ I will never forget the special time spent with Jim and Elaine last October. His hospitality, his tours of the Battlefield and the knowledge he provided of Ft. Ogelthorpe, the history and the pride he had for his home, the battles and his country. My best friend Eliane married herself one great guy, now I mourn with her at the loss of The Love of Her Life this Great Guy. Rest in peace my friend Jim, may the light of Jesus shine on you now, no pain no tears.. Just Love.

You will be missed. Cathy Gilland Margate FL.
