“ Kelley, We am so sorry for your husband's passing, We know Jimmy is with Our Lord and Savior now and in no more pain. I know you will have a void in your life, but you have many precious memories which will always be with you. We love you and you are in our thoughts. I didn't know about it until day before yesterday and am sorry I didn't know sooner .

Warren & Mary Ellen

I think about all our memories of watching my family and your family grow up together, become adults, have children, grandchildren and the world becomes sweeter and more precious than ever. So many good memories we have to cherish just as you will have (in time) of Jimmy.

I love you all,

Kelly, I'm so sorry for your loss but I believe he is waiting for you in heaven, probably in a garden (you know how much he loved plant life and caring for it). What a blessing you have always been to Jimmy, I thank God for putting you in his life.... you were exactly what and who he needed.
Judy, he respected and loved you so, so much.... I'm so very sorry for your loss. I can't even imagine the hurt you must feel but I do know that God can and will comfort you. I love you all (Bobby, Wendy and girls I know you will all miss him)

“ While I'm sad Jimmy's left us, I rejoice because he is in heaven with our Savior, Jesus Christ. "We are confident, yes, well pleased rather to be absent from the body and to be present with the Lord." (2 Corinthians 5:8) Scripture is filled with promises of God, and all of God's promises have been fulfilled or will be fulfilled. Nothing can separate us from God's love, but God's love will temporarily separate us from each other. Jimmy was as close to being like Jesus than anyone I've known. I was blessed to have known him and honored to call him my friend.
