“ My family and Jim's first met as military families in Wilmington, NC. As next door neighbors we quickly became as a family. We stayed in contact throughout the years after retirement from the Air Force. After Bev's passing during his saddest times, he reached out to me, as I had experienced the same pain. Our friendship grew into a special and unique one spending hours talking about our past and our beloved spouses. Jim, I will miss your visits to Panama City and our daily phone calls. It's such a consolation in knowing, for sure, you are with Jesus and the love of your life, Beverly!! RIP my special friend!! Thanks for the wonderful memories!,

I will always remember at our Gideon breakfast on Saturday he love tell about going Military reunion and seeing old friends and always took Gideon testament to share with his faith to them. He loved his family he took care of his wife and Grand Mother for many years. Yes Jim loved to tell his war stories and the Guns he loved to collect. He also Loved his church at Clouds Spring Baptist and even thier would try to make sure Gideon testament would be there for VBS. God Kingdom is now got a New Soldier to fight evil!!!

Met Jim in Bitburg Germany in 1977. We became friends immediately and remained friends until he passed. He was our chaplain over 20 years at the 36 MMS reunions in Branson MO. Always had a message of salvation and material he had for anyone who was interested. He visited with my wife Linda and I in Panama City when he came to see his wonderful friend Ginger. He was always witnessing for Jesus no matter where he was. I will miss my brother by another mother. RIP Jim. Will see you soon. Duane (Pete) Peters
