*“ Jim and Wanda were so loving and kind to me when I lost my husband in 2001. I loved to visit them where I knew I could find peace and love. I will always remember Jim for His quiet ways and sincere words. Wanda, Pam and family, I send my prayers, love and sympathy. I wish we could get together in person; hopefully soon. God be with you and comfort you. Love you.

“ Wanda, I am so very sad to learn of the passing of Jimmy. I worked with him for 12 years at D.M. Steward. He was always so special to me. He was such a sweet man. If you remember, you had me fill out your Marriage Book because you loved my handwriting. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your families. May God give all of you comfort at this sad time and precious memories.
