Dear Father, I know the pain that this family is going through. Please wrap them in Your arms and let them know that You are with them always. On the days that seem impossible to go through, let Your strength carry them. Let them know that there are many praying and will continue to pray for them.
In Jesus Name,
Amen

“ To Cameron's mother, you came into rue21 one night while I was working and we helped you find camo gear for his birthday party. I didn't know then who you were until you told us who your son was and the situation. After you left, it brought me to tears. I am so thankful that we could all be a part of that day, even if it was just by helping you choose clothes. I've thought about it often. I am sorry from the bottom of my heart for this loss. My church and I prayed every Sunday for him and praised the Lord for any good news we heard. Nothing the Lord does is without purpose. Please know my church and family are praying for you all. Know he rests in peace.

They enjoyed a special relationship while having the best time at the 8th grade dance. Cam was part of our family. We will always have our memories, to include the fun trip to Pigeon Forge. Cam will never be forgotten. No one will ever take the memories away. Heaven has truly been blessed with a wonderful young man. Our hearts break for Trina and family.

“ I can't imagine the pain of losing a child. I only met Cameron three itmes, but the last time I saw him, we talked for about an hour. I felt like I had known him for awhile. He was in good spirits that day and was smiling a lot. It was just before he left for St Jude. I will always remember our conversation from that day. It's so hard to understand why anyone gets cancer, especially children. My heart aches for Trina and her family. I am praying for peace and comfort for you all.

“ May God bless this family and give peace and comfort through this time.

Rest in peace Cameron. I am so glad I got to meet you. But even though we only talked a few times, it did not take much to know that you had a tremendous effect on people. You now know the purpose of your earthly life and I can only imagine what your eyes are seeing at this time! You have brought so many people of all ages together and toward Christ, and you have led the way. We will grieve, we will miss you, we will have fond memories....until we meet again. Rest in peace.

“ I have never been so inspired by anyone as I have been by this young man I never had the pleasure of meeting. My wife kept up with him on Facebook and my daughter did the same at school. I heard about a young man who didn't give up. Who came to school even in the midst of a battle. A man who inspired many, myself included, just by walking the walk. Some boys grow very old yet never become a real man. In my book Camo was Mighty Big Man. He touched more lives in 16 years than most people will ever touch. He will never be forgotten even by those he never met. My families prayers are with you always and may GOD comfort you and hold you closely during this time.
