“ Barbara,
I am so sorry for your loss. Jim was so kind and funny. He always made me laugh back in the days of waiting in the car rider line at Ridgeland the wait went by so fast. Love you my dear friend

“ I have fond memories growing up with my cousin Jim. Backyard whiffleball, card & board games, playing pool singing to 60s hits, etc. As adults we rarely saw each other, but met for dinner about 9 years ago. We picked up where we left off; he was the kind, funny guy I remembered. Our sincere condolences to Barbie & her family as well as to my cousins Rick, Ken & their families. Rest in peace Jim! Love, Jackie & Gery Santora
