“Dad, as I have grown over the years I find myself constantly coming back to re-read your obituary and the comments. I know you're watching me carry this last name with pride. I still to this day after almost 12 years find myself struggling to understand why. I hope I still make you proud daddy. I love you and miss you more and more everyday. Also, I show my babygirl maleigh your pictures all the time. We refer to you as "grandpa dude". I hope you're resting easy pops 💜

“Jamie, I feel like it was just yesterday but a year tomorrow, 7-10-2014, so hard to believe, I hope the water is beautiful and the fishing is good where you are... We will be taking your ashes to scatter at the beach on Okaloosa Island this weekend when all of us will be together, Grandma Lolly, Grandpa Bill, Cousin Leah, Cousin Erica, Cousin Leslie and families in your memory... We love and miss you so much my Jamie boy.... You will always be right here in our hearts, until we meet again and go fishing together... Never Ever Will We Forget You... Love You Always and Forever... Just now talked to your Dad and he wants you to know he loves so much.... by Grandma Lolly 7-9-2015

“ No one knew the torment,
that you were going through;
We only kept on seeing
What we really wanted to.

We saw the outward smile,
but not your inner pain;
We never really dreamt,
That you would never smile again.

Forgive us if we failed to see,
What we could do to aid;
Or if we failed to comprehend,
How much you were afraid.

We pray your mental anguish,
Will now forever cease;
And that your deep anxieties,
Will be replaced by peace.

We know your pain invaded,
Every single thought you had;
It made you cry internally,
And deeply, deeply sad.

But we in turn remember,
The good times, not the bad;
We remember when you smiled at us,
And not when you were sad.

So when we think about your life,
We won't dwell upon its close;
We'll remember all the good times,
And forget about life's blows.

We'll remember all the happiness,

*The joy and not the tears;
The assurance and the confidence,
And not irrational fears.*

*Our lives have all been better,
Because you have been there;
So now we leave your memory,
In God's all-loving care.*

“ Our Sweet Jamie Boy. God knew that you were suffering, He knew you were in pain. He knew you would never get well on this earth again. So he closed your beautiful blue eyes and whispered, "Peace Be Thine." It broke our hearts to lose you but you didn't go alone, for part of us went with you the day God took you home. Our Jamie will always live in our hearts... R I P my beautiful Grandson... Grandma Lolly and Grandpa Bill Love You....

“ My sweet Jamie....My first day of work at the skating rink and my very first customer looking thru the little window at me...Jamie. What a true joy you were to me. You began working before you knew how to drive!!! I watched you grow into such a loving, gentle spirit. Your devotion to your mother was beautiful, you shared a bond that few would understand...I watched you set up Rachel's first skating rink birthday party...how proud you were still brings a smile to my face. My little family has always loved you in a special way, you will always be a part of us. Always in my heart your little light will shine! I love youMiss Rhonda
