When Linda comes to my mind...i think of the sweetest sister that Heavenly Father has given us... to share the love that Linda gave. She always had that smile that came with a hug...you knew you were loved 💕...she will be missed by all. My love and prayers to all our family and church family...you are all in my thoughts and prayers 🙏❤️💙

“ My grandma bear would always leave a candy bar on my pillow. She was the sweetest lady I have ever known. She would always show us the "I love you" sign in sign language. When my wife and I went to visit her this past summer, we loved seeing her light up when she talked about her grandkids. She sure does love us.
