>

> Janice Massey, age 82, resident of Rising Fawn, Georgia, passed away on Tuesday, May 21, 2024 at her residence.

>

> Mrs. Massey, daughter of the late Woodrow William Cates and Emma Mae Frances Gravitt Cates, was born September 30, 1941 in Durham, Georgia. She was a homemaker and member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, in Flintstone, Georgia. Mrs. Massey had an interest in genealogy and studying family history. She enjoyed gardening, landscaping, and taking walks in the nearby woods. While at home, many would find her sewing, canning food, quilting, or doing an inside project.

>

> The family remembers her as a lady always wanting to serve and help others. She was a lady who loved her family immensely.

>

> Besides her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Wallace Henry Massey; two brothers, Leon Cates and Harvey Cates; and a sister, Doris Clark. Mrs. Massey is survived by two daughters, Karen (Rodney) Carroll and Dixie (Kirt) Sjostrom; one sister, Gwendolyn Blevins; two brothers, Granvil Cates and Davoit (Pam) Cates; eight grandchildren, Rodney (Roxanne) Carroll II, Tim Carroll, Wesley (Pam) Carroll, Shannon (Matt) Clark, Stephanie (Zach) Gravitt, Jesse (Brittany) Carroll, Chelsea Sjostrom, and Hunter Sjostrom; numerous great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.

“ My dear Granny, I have known you for over 22 years. You and Papaw Henry were the first to embrace me into your wonderful family! I remember the day we came to tell you that we were engaged. You said "Well, if you each see the other as someone you are able to fight with and you both can handle not getting your way in those fights, then I'm happy for you both." Your great depth of wisdom was boundless as was your love and compassion. You had a great talent for bridling your tongue that I am only hoping to accomplish eventually. The world will not be the same without you! Love Roxanne & Rodney & Rex

“ I have too many great memories of Janice just to share one, but I mostly remember her sweet quiet voice and her knowledge of the gospel that she like to share with everyone. I also remember when Barry and I would ride to temple on Tuesday with her and Henry and we had such a good time going there and coming back. Janice, my friend you will be missed but never forgotten and I know you and HERNY are teaching the gospel to someone right now.

“ I loved her sweet voice. One time I went to her house and she showed me how to can pinto beans. I will forever cherish that memory and the many things that we talked about. All the memories that we talked about of the past, especially about the Gospel and how the Church has grown. Her memory will forever be in my heart. You, her family will be in my prayers and in my thoughts.
