“ Jayne was such a sweet person from the first time of meeting her in school to the time that our families came together. JAYNE was so blessed in this world with her family, and the family that she was blessed with, to love her so much. She was Loved by the wonderful grandbabies that brought her so much pride and joy and could put a smile on her face and fill her heart with so much love. The kindness that she showed so many and friendliness she showed to those sometimes that she did not even know should make her parents proud of the sweet spirit that she was. When thinking of her now it is hard not to be sad for the fact is she will be missed by so many both young and old. The children that she was so proud of, and the man that loved her till the end. Jesus said I am the LIGHT so let that bring comfort to you all in knowing she is no longer in the dark. I pray for you all that the sadness leaves you soon and is replaced with joy. With good memories of her because that is what she would want. Love is being sent to all of you. The world loss a bit of sweetness but she lives on with all the ones that love her so much. I want to say thank you Jayne, because of you my family is forever changed and so much richer with joy that there is not enough words for. Love ya girl see you later...
