“ I am so sorry to learn the death of Jean. She, my brother Hugh and I would play together as children when there was a family gathering . My mother was Jean’s Aunt Mary. I lived most of my life in NY, my father’s home state but we visited my mother’s family every year. I last visited Jean a few years ago with one of my daughters. So glad I got to see her. I still have the glass bead decorated bowling ball she gave me then.
God bless you, Jean.

“ When I first met my new mother in law in 1979, I was instantly impressed. Once I walked into her kitchen and she had the chain saw, all in pieces on her kitchen table, fixing it. Bob could tear it up and she could fix it.
