

Jean Little

July 11, 1945 - January 26, 2024

Jean Little, age 78, resident of LaFayette, Georgia, went to be with her Lord and Savior on Friday, January 26, 2024.

Mrs. Little, daughter of the late Ollie Montgomery Corley and Corinne Wilson Corley, was born July 11, 1945 in Atlanta, Georgia. She was a founding member of McDonough Christian Church, McDonough, Georgia. Mrs. Little was employed as a Secretary with Powell, Goldstein, Frazer, and Murphy Attorneys for several years. She enjoyed reading, particularly western and crime novels. Mrs. Little was an avid traveler with her husband through the years, traveling to all 50 U.S. states and six continents. She also enjoyed fishing and admiring the wildlife thru her binoculars at home. Mrs. Little was noted as a “thrifty shopper” by many. Most of all, she enjoyed spending quality time with the grandchildren. The family remembers her as a well cultured lady and a true child of God.

Besides her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Harry Carlton Little; a grandson, Daniel German; one sister, June Buchanan; and one brother, Andrew Corley.

Mrs. Little is survived by two sons, Christopher Little and his wife Lynn and Clayton Little and his wife Beth; seven grandchildren, Blaine Little, Carter Little, Camden Little, Kirstee Lagarde, Kelsee Bratley, Kyle Williams, and Ralston Patterson; several nieces; nephews; other relatives and friends.

“ Our family was so saddened to hear of Jean's passing. She was a beautiful person that exemplified warmth and positivity and modeled strength in adversity. I don't ever remember her that she didn't have a smile on her face. She was an example to me of grandmotherly love and generosity. She treated my children as she would her own grandchildren. She truly will be missed as a neighbor and friend.
