May Your children know what a great athlete, friend, and big brother you were while at Ringgold HS. May we see you soon in heaven!

“ My favorite memories of my sweet baby brother are the millions of times that he made others smile with his million dollar smile and the funny jokes he always told! He loved making others laugh and his smile would light up the room when he walked in. He so loved his mother and father, his brothers and sisters, his children, and grandchildren, and he had an abundance of close friends he loved very much! We just can't believe he's already in Heaven! We will see him again someday with an even brighter, radiant smile from above! Rest in peace my dear brother....your pain is gone and you are happy with Jesus, our Saviour! We will always miss you and love you so much!

“ It's really hard to believe that my good friend of 30 years is no longer here. I'm just so thankful that God gave us 30 years to make some of the greatest memories and fun times that anyone could ever have. I'm very sad and gonna miss you very much but I'm also happy that your pain is gone and that you've got a new home in Heaven. I'm glad that we will reunite again someday and have some more laughs in a much greater place. Until then, learn your way around Heaven so you can show us around when we come to join you.

“ I can remember when me and jeff met a few years ago after not seeing each other it was like reuniting with family he hollered at me and I knew exactly who it was bye the way he walked and we had a awesome time talking about the old days and how we were in life now, it was so touching to know even after high school that you still have people that love you and care about you, that's the way I felt after we left, and even now that my friend is gone to the father I know he loves me and care about me , and I know when I get there he will be hollering hey gumby, im over here. I will truly miss him but I know he's free from pain and suffering, and in the present of our Lord and savior Jesus Christ , I know I will see my buddy friend again .

“ I am so blessed to have had the pleasure to get to know "Mr. Dean" as I was one of several nurses who took care of him during his time at Vanderbilt Medical Center. I remember the first time I laid eyes on him I could not believe he was old enough to be my father. He just looked so young and full of life. His smile completely lit up the room. Now that I think about it, I may have given him a bit of a big head during the time I cared for him! Over the course of a few nights, "Mr. Dean" (whom I quickly learned preferred to just be called Jeff) and I became buddies. We talked about everything from hunting and fishing to Waylon Jennings and Merle. He couldn't believe a girl like me was into the outdoor/country way of life. He showed me pictures of the fish he had caught and the deer he had shot. He also showed me pictures of his beautiful children and grandbabies. I couldn't keep everyone straight there were so many! He was so proud of everyone. It was such a pleasure to come to know Mr. Jimmy and Mrs. Wanda, as well. They never left his side. The love that poured from the Dean family was beyond anything that could be put into words. My heart is broken at the news, but I find peace in knowing that my "buddy" is no longer in pain. I know that he is looking down on each and every one of his family and friends and smiling that beautiful smile of his. It's this smile and his famous fist bump he would give me when I left the room that I will always remember. I would like to send my condolences to Jeff's family and friends during this time. My prayers are with you all.
