“ Jeff was a great person that took his job serious and could always be counted on. I have many wonderful memories of him, but none better than the time he picked me up from the airport in Knoxville, TN and interviewed with me on the way to the hotel. After the interviews, I was informed of a hiring freeze and had to share that news with Jeff. He took it graciously. I assured him when the time came, if he was still available, I would want him on our team. Fortunately, a little less than 2 years later, the opportunity to hire in Chattanooga, TN became available. I called Jeff immediately and it was like we had just spoke the day before. He was as enthusiastic as ever and wanted to go to work immediately. He started out at full speed and stayed at it as that was the only speed he operated at. Jeff loved the fact that we always talked about being a work family and treated each other as such. He really appreciated that we were all very open, honest and straight forward. Jeff will forever be a part and influence on our work family and me personally. He will be missed immensely.

“ Jeff seemed to truly live to ride and spend time with his horses. Although the pain of losing him so suddenly is heartwrenching to those of us that are left behind, I am comforted in hoping that God chose him to go to Heaven and take care of all our beloved horses that we have lost and blaze the trails through Eternity for the rest of us.

I pray that God will help all of his family and friends find comfort in his memories and the all too short of time that we spent together.

“ Me and my husband Robert E. Lee can't express what Jeff meant to us. He was a dear sweet friend to us, always there to help and what fun to ride horses with
As my son, Adam Lee put it, Heaven is getting one heck of a cowboy
We loved him dearly and he will be truly missed

“ I didn't know Jeffrie long but it was long enough to know in his voice that he was nice, kind and humble. It was always a pleasure speaking with him even tho' the conversations were short. My heart is sad, but his voice is clear in my memories.

Thank you Jeffrie for the small conversations, you will be GREATLY missed.

I pray the comfort and peace of The LORD God for his family and friends. AMEN!!!

“ Though we never met in person I feel like we were long time friends. Jeff was a wonderful man to get to work with and I looked forward to hearing him on the other end of the phone and how he answered with just "Jeff Stiles". It came as quite a shock to hear of Jeffs passing. My heart goes out to his family and will keep you in my thoughts and prayers. Jeff will be greatly missed.
