Jennifer Lei O'Kelley England

April 8, 1968 – July 23, 2024

Jennifer Lei O'Kelley England, 56, of Rossville, Georgia, passed away on Tuesday, July 23, 2024. She was born in Chattanooga, Tennessee, to the late Doyle and Francis O'Kelley. Jen was a lifelong resident of the Rossville area and was of the Baptist faith. First and foremost, Jen was a mother who dearly loved her only daughter, Tabitha. She loved her family and those she “adopted” as her own. There was nothing Jen would not do for her daughter and her family. Jen was a passionate Georgia Bulldog Football fan. She was known to get excited, vocal, and passionate during the games. Go dawgs! Jen was always up for a good card game of Rummy. Her favorite saying was, “Why is the rum always gone?” Jen was always non-judgmental and accepting of those around her and she will be greatly missed.

Jen is preceded in death by her parents, Doyle C. and Francis E. O'Kelley, and her son, Michael Anthony Henning.

Those left to cherish her memory include her daughter, Tabitha (Jonathan) Spears of Tunnel Hill, Georgia; sisters Janet Mann of Rossville, Georgia, and Jennett (Monte) Orr of Tunnel Hill, Georgia; grandson, Jasper Michael Spears; nephews Jamie O'Kelley, Brandon Orr, and Levi Orr, and many aunts and uncles.

The family has arranged for a time to remember and honor Jen. Friends and family are invited to join us on Monday, July 29, 2024, from 11 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. The graveside service, a time to celebrate Jen's life, will be held on Monday, July 29, 2024, at 2:30 p.m. at Tennessee-Georgia Memorial Park in Rossville, Georgia. “ My Momma was the strongest woman I have ever known. She loved with her whole heart and laughed with her whole soul. Me and my best friend, Patricia, would spend hours just watching goofy movies with Momma. One of her favorites was To Wong Foo, Thanks for Everything, Julie Newmar. There's so much to say and not enough words to express it. We love you, Momma.
