

Jeremy Hentz

February 23, 1982 - October 11, 2013

Jeremy Davis Hentz, age 31 of Chickamauga, was born in Athens, Ga to the proud parents, Vicki Smith Hentz and Wm. Davis Hentz. He graduated from Gordon Lee High School, employed by David Hentz Law Practice and was of the Presbyterian Faith. He was preceded in death by grandparents, Harold and Vera Smith, and Clark and Corinne Hentz. Jeremy is survived by his parents, David and Vicki Hentz; brothers, Jon and Joey Hentz; sister Heather Reynolds; niece, Haley Elliott; nephew, Tobin Elliott all of Chickamauga; and several cousins. Jeremy loved his family and friends, he professed his enduring and unfettered love for "Karma," the daughter he raised and cherished for a short time. He acknowledged his wonderful life he lived. In addition he was an avid and dedicated Georgia Bulldog fan; his last words included an enthusiastic "Go Dawgs!" He was a brilliant and talented musician. He loved literature, history and poetry. His grasp of detail amazed all that knew him. His love for farm life and Hearthstone Farm was huge. Greatly influenced by his grandparents, Clark and Corinne, He worked tirelessly on the farm and grew beautiful vegetables in the garden. He prided himself for his abilities with cattle, farm equipment and mending fences. Also among his last words was a testament to his life, as he deemed himself "bound for glory" Jeremy insisted his death be a celebration of lives; his own and those he loved. That Celebration of Lives will be held at 4:00 pm on Friday, October 18, 2103 at the Chickamauga Presbyterian Church, with Rev. Chris Robinson and Rev. Michael Thomas officiating. The family will receive friends from 4:00 pm to 8:00 pm on Thursday at the funeral home. In Lieu of Flowers, the family request memorial contributions to Hope Fellowship Church of Chickamauga. Arrangements by Wilson Funeral Home-J. Avery Bryan Chapel.

“ Jeremy, "Jere," and I have been best of friends as long as I can remember. We were close cousins, but more like brother and sister! Our love for camping, nature, music, and our beloved Hearthstone Farm always kept us close.

If not for Jere, I would've never met the love of my life and best friend, my husband, Benjamin "Ben" Howard. Together we have a beautiful two year old daughter, Corinne (named after Jere's and my Grandmother "Corinne"), and have been married five years! I'll always believe that the Lord brought Jere & Ben together that one sunny day over ten years ago because I was meant to be Ben's wife! Ben & Jere always shared their love of music through their guitars together!

Since Jere's been gone, all I've thought about is "what if," and it's nearly driven me crazy. Ben and the Lord have helped me overcome that part of the grieving cycle, and helped me to think only of all the many, many happy, crazy, funny times with Jere, which I hold so dear to me in my heart. I'm able to look back at thirty years worth of memories, and that, I'm afraid, will have to hold me over until the Lord, Jesus, calls me home, and I can see him again!

*"Only when you drink from the river or silence, shall you indeed sing
And when you have reached the mountain top,
then you shall begin to climb
And when the earth shall claim your limbs, then shall you truly dance."*

- Kahlil Gibran

*"Gently as the evening sun says good night to the trees,
Quietly as grasses bend before a rushing breeze,
Surely as the ocean waves advance to touch the shore,
Silently as autumn leaves fall to the forest floor...
So may the passing of the days heal loneliness and sorrow,
Till nothing but warm memories fill every new tomorrow."*

“ David, Vickie & family,
My thoughts & prayers are with you and everyone that knew Jeremy. He will always hold a special place in my heart. Some of the best days of my life were spent with Jeremy. He was one of a kind & well liked by almost everyone he met. He just had such a great personality, so many friends. He's moved on to a better place & will be greatly missed! Like I told Jeremy about 2 months go, I will always be there for him. Now that he's in a better place I want you to know David, Vickie & family that I am always here for you. R.I.P. my sweet, kind Jer and go dawgs!

“ Jeremy, my friend, this message is to you as much as anyone who knew and loved you. I am still in shock over your passing and not quite sure how to handle it. You were a unique individual, with the abilities to; make people laugh, drive them insane, make them laugh again and ALWAYS, ALWAYS, love you!! I know you know what I mean!! I pray that you are in Heaven, with your guitar, playing all those beautiful songs you wrote for the rest of the angels there with you. The light that shone inside you is not out, even with your death. Those of us who knew, and loved you, will see it always and carry it with us until we get to see you again. Your gentle soul and "hippie" laid back personality will be sorely missed. I love & miss you my friend!!! ALWAYS!!

To Jeremy's family, my love, thoughts & prayers are with you all. May God wrap you in his arms and bring you peace in the difficult days and years to come as only HE can do.

“ I just wanted to say I so fondly remember Jeremy when he was 5 years old and an inseparable playmate to my son Jason. We lived in the same town houses in East Ridge behind Jeremy's grandmother's house. Jason and Jeremy had a lingo only they understood and it was just simply "ruff ruff". My doorbell would ring and I would open the door and it would be this gorgeous blonde head, blue eyed rosey cheeked little Jeremy. He would say "ruff ruff." They would play endlessly with their Mask toys that Vickie and I would have to run out and buy everytime a new one came out. They also loved to wear their army pants of which they referred to as "uggy fins." Even though I had not seen them in a long time, I often thought about my friends, the "Hentzs'.

Vickie and David, please know that our thoughts and prayers are with you in these difficult days. Love you guys!

“ Some of my fondest memories was times spent with Jeremy. On the farm, at school, hanging out on Tenant Circle. He really wanted people to love and laugh. One year we went to Music Midtown in Atlanta, GA. After the bands had finished, we were walking towards the gates when we came upon two gentlemen in a fight. Instead of passing by or standing around watching, he approached the two gentlemen(in the middle of a very physical altercation) and tried to separate them. He didn't want to see anyone harming anyone else. He put himself at risk for the sake of two complete strangers. That is the Jeremy I know. One of his first original songs that he wrote was entitled "Breathe Deep, Laugh Long". I was lucky enough to have been able to back him up on drums on several occasions(sometimes even skipping school to do so!). The last time I had communication with Jeremy was a month or two ago. He told me how proud and happy he was for me. It means a lot to hear those kind of words from your friends. I wish I could have done more for you bro. I wish I could be there with you and our friends. I wish you were still here with us. The world is a little less brighter today in his absence. So breathe deep and laugh long Jeremy. I love you and miss you already(you dirty hippie!).

“Jeremy forever changed me. Mere words cannot express the magnitude of how I feel about him. He had an infectious light that drew people to him. Some of my fondest memories were made at the farm under the stars with Jeremy playing the guitar and singing with that beautiful voice. He gave me The Prophet for my 23rd birthday and I think of these words from it now.
