“ My Tribute To Jerry Glenn Doyle.

Praise God

I came to know Jerry when taking care of him in one of rehab centers in Chattanooga. He shared his faith to me. And he was interested to know about me too. I shared my Faith too, he asked to pray with. Anytime I was assigned to him he addressed me, my sister in Christ , and would give me a verse to read. We became friends. He introduced to his wife. Before he left. He requested that I should visit him at home. He asked to make a promise which I did. With that being said I did keep the promise. I have visited Jerry a number of times: anytime he was a an encouragement to me, shared word of God with knowledge and wisdom. He was a blessing and I felt connected with him in Spirit. My last talk with Jerry was July ,19,2020 he called to update me what's going on with him. Full of faith and ready to go home when good Lord is ready for him . What a faith brother and sisters in Christ. Jerry had no boundary, his love was the love of Christ. I have lost father in Faith, friend, and encourager. I prayer that there arise other Jerry in the church of Christ. Our Father, brother friend we will meet again. When we finish our race us you did . You fought a good flight and finished well in faith.

“Wow, what a legacy my dad left behind as he entered the arms of Jesus. There wasn't a day that went by he didn't have a song in his heart or the Bible opened. He was my support, teacher, friend, but most of all a loving father. He was with me every step. He taught me to love Jesus first and foremost. He made sure I always finished the course no matter how rough the path. He was pushing me to be better than I thought I was. The day I graduated college he was the proudest. I can't imagine my life without him, I know it was better with him in it. He loved freely and he was always talking about the Lord with someone. Even the day before he died he asked his nurse if she was a Christian. I hope I can be more like him because I saw Christ in my dad. I will miss you so very much daddy. I know It won't long until we are together again.

“My dad, where do I even begin?? Never did he fail me, abandon me, abuse me, mistreat me. He taught me, encouraged me, molded me and inspired me. He taught me that I was a strong and confident girl / woman who could do anything I set out to do. He taught me determination and was my biggest cheerleader. Above all else, he loved God and taught me from an early age that my relationship with God is paramount and that our mission on earth is to be a godly example to others and to love others. My dad loved EVERYONE, he witnessed to everyone and so many lives have been changed because he followed his Lord. He was soooo funny and his humor was unlike any other. He loved with his whole heart and unconditionally. I could go on and on. I will miss him every single day until we are reunited one day soon in heaven. Love you dad, Always

“ I remember spending time with Uncle Jerry and everytime we went to their house for a visit, he always had his Bible open and was reading his Bible and he was a blessing to everyone.

Tim, that never changed. The day he passed away, we had his recorder on his bed and he was listening to Bible.

“ I've known Jerry almost 40 years. He was always an example of a true Christian. He loved the Lord more than anything. He was always up early in the morning reading his Bible. He loved to sing about Jesus. He always had songs picked out for church on Sunday. I had the pleasure of being his pastor for over 30 years. He was always encouraging and never critical in any way. We both served in the Navy and were both saved in our late 20s. Jerry will always be missed and remembered fondly.

“ I didn't know Brother Jerry very long, only three in a half years! He made an impression on me, at Church, he was a very sweet man, a God fearing man and he loved the Lord, with all of his heart and soul! I am so happy, that he is in Heaven, singing and praising the Lord! I will miss him dearly, especially his kindness, his thoughtful and caring ways and especially his witness! He will be sadly missed! I will never forget him! He was a good, Christian man! My thoughts and Prayers are with Donnie and all of his family! 🕊️🙏❤️
