“ Family, I knew Jerry when he was a small lad of a boy, His family and mine were together many many times. His father was our pastor at Subligna Baptist Churh in the early fifties. Jerry was a very active child I remember, I have so many sweet memories of those days, especially Sundays when they would come home with my family from Church for Sunday lunch. My deepest sympathy to his family at this time.

“ Jerry is at rest with his Heavenly Father. I know that doesn't take away the pain but it will help us to remember that his pain has ended.

So sorry,
