“ Jerry was a great help to me when I was pastor at Indian Springs & Chattanooga Valley Church of God. He would ride with my wife and me to church, and during the ride we would talk about the Bible and how good God was to us. Jerry had a great insight into the Word of God, what the verse were meaning and how to apply them to everyday living. When he moved he remained in contact through face book or email. Some of his sermons on the net would bring tears of blessings to my eyes. For someone to have so many difficulties physically, so much sickness and pain; and yet remain excited about Jesus is amazing in our time, but that was Jerry. Bubba, many affectionately called him, could see the silver lining in the darkest cloud or storm. Bubba had a unique spiritual sensitivity and could tell what someones spiritual gift was and how God would use them for the Glory of the kingdom. Now he is living in that eternal part of the Kingdom to dwell in the House of the Lord forever. Miss you Jerry.
