My dearest Jessie Mae you sure are going to be a miss, I loved the times we spent together and when you would stay at the house for sleep overs or weekends we really had fun we would go for a ride or shopping at Fred's just to get out of the house, when you were in your silly mood you could shake a leg or two or even stick your tongue out at us, you never claimed your age but who really does want to claim their right age you always told us you were as young as you feel and you always made yourself younger lol I love you and sure will miss you, but at the same time thank the Lord for letting you stay with us a while, now you will be with all your loved ones, while later on down the road lord willing will all be together, so good night granny until we meet again, you will always be in my thoughts.love you.forever.
