“ My heart breaks for you guys. Jewel was one of the most loving, gracious ladies I ever have known. She touched so many hearts over the years with all the children that loved her. She still could tell stories about my boys, as many as she taught, she knew them all. Sorry I couldn't make it, I'm laid up with broke leg & foot. Thanks for sharing Jackson with us. Love you all!

“ Jewel was friends with everyone, she wasn't just a part of the "in crowd".
She was as beautiful inward as outward, and everyone knows she was a real beauty. But, above all she was a Lady, gracious, loving and very sincere.
I last saw her at our 50th. Class Reunion in Chattanooga in October, I had no idea she was ill, she still looked as pretty as I remembered her from earlier days.
My thoughts and prayers are with her family, loved ones and friends.
The Lord has other plans for us all, just believe He knows what is best for us all.
Goodbye Jewel, God chose you.
Your old childhood friend. Daisy
