Jimmy Dale Dykes

September 9, 1954 – May 20, 2024

Jimmy Dale Dykes, 69, of Trenton, Georgia, passed away on Monday, May 20, 2024. He was born in Summerville, Georgia, to the late Grady and Lillie Pearl Dykes, and he was a lifelong resident of the Northwest Georgia area. For most of his life, Jimmy enjoyed woodworking and building. He was a skilled cabinet maker and enjoyed building clocks. Jimmy dearly loved his family and always enjoyed picking on those he loved. He took great joy in spending time with his grandchildren and great-grandchildren. He always had a great sense of humor and enjoyed life. Jimmy loved animals and looking for Indian artifacts with his grandchildren. His family loved Jimmy, and he will be missed.

Jimmy is preceded in death by his parents, Grady Columbus, and Lillie Pearl Dykes; brothers, Winford Dykes, Lamar Dykes, Bobby Davis, and J.C. Hicks; and sisters, Joyce York, and Joann Dykes.

Those left to cherish his memory include his wife, Elizabeth Dykes; daughter, Sabrina (Jamie) Phillips of Higdon, Alabama; son, Christopher Dykes of Dalton, Georgia; sister, Lois Simmons; brother, Bill Dykes; grandchildren, Brandon Phillips, Danielle Peoples, Shauwn Phillips, Caleb Dykes, and Tyler

Dykes; great-grandchildren, Raven Phillips, Lakelynn Peoples, and Izzy Dykes.

A time to gather to celebrate Jimmy's life will be held at a later date.
