“ To try to think of just one memory of Glenn is really hard. These past couple of days my mind has been flooded with memory of him. From when me and Donnie were dating to when we were married and The birth of our boys. Glenn was always there for us and with us. He was like a brother to Donnie and a uncle to my boys. My favorite part of Glenn was his laugh. I loved to hear that little chuckle he had. I will miss him so much. Life will not be the same without him. Rest in peace my dear friend until I see you again.

“ It was a cold day on the golf course. I hadn't drank alcohol In over 4 years.I was freezing and my buddy Chad and Glenn were pouring rum in those little pointy cups. I asked with chattering teeth "may I have some of that rum", guys? They both looked up at me with looks that made feel like I had grown a second nose or something.Glenn spoke very softly to me in a voice I never heard him use before. "Sure Bogie you can have a little rum, but are you sure"? I held out my pointy cup and they pours me a shot and I drank it. Almost immediately I warmed up and we finished 18 holes. But I'll never forget the looks both of them gave me that day...never
