“ It was an honor and a privilege to know and have Jo in my life. We were neighbors for many years and my mom and Jo were good friends. But as in life people go their separate ways and we didn't see as much of each other. Later at two of the worst times of my life, the death of my parents, there was Jo. Seeing Jo brought back so many good memories. Jo was like my second mama and I told her that. She hugged my neck and told me we were her girls. I know my mama met Jo in heaven and they are having coffee right now. I love and will miss you very much
