Kay, Rosie, James and family.

I am sorry for your loss. I have known Elaine and her family for many years. When I first met her everyone called her blondie and for the longest time I never knew that was her nickname. She was a special lady that never allowed hard times through life to knock her down. She always got back up!! Elaine was a very special lady and much admired for her strength to overcome all she faced in grief for her children, and those who passed on.. I know she is with Jesus and her family in Heaven !! I know you all will miss her terribly and she is waiting for you when God calls you home!! I love you all. Elaine I am so happy to have known you friend and so grateful you blessed my life!!
