“ Sometimes I get sad that I never got the chance to do the things that I said I would do. Like retire you or get you a home. Wish we could ride bikes together. In the next life..

“You know mom, It's a shame that you died so young. We can't stop death though, which is why I will ride motorcycles until i'm a crusty old man. After all, you taught me how to ride motorcycles. Although you are gone, I knew that you were with me on my deployments in the Marines. I knew that you were with me at my college graduation. You were with me when I got accepted into graduate school for my mba at Colorado state. I see you when I look hard enough. Though the world might not care, I was only able to do these things because of the resilience I learned from you. I got this motorcycle for $700 and fixed it up in the apartment parking lot when I was working overnights at the Kum & Go gas station in undergraduate school. I think about you every time I ride it. I sure do miss you.”

“ Mother, I know your looking down upon your family and friends . My heart is broken & shattered. I will keep our traditions alive. I'll watch every Lsu game I can. Your too young, shame on motorcycles for ever being made! "Johnny & June"

*Oh there's something 'bout a man in black,
Makes me want to buy a cadillac,
Throw the top back,
And roll down to Jackson town,
I wanna be there on the stage with you,
You and I could be the next rage to,
Hear the crowd roar,
Make 'em one more,
I'll kick the footlights out,*

*I wanna love like Johnny & June,
Rings of fire burnin' with you,
I wanna walk the line,
Walk the line,
'Till the end of time,
I wanna love,
Love ya that much,
Cash it all in,
Give it all up,
When you're gone,
I wanna go too,
Like Johnny & June,*

*I wanna hold you baby right or wrong,
Build a world around a country song,
Pray a sweet prayer,
Follow you there,
Down in history,*

*I wanna love like Johnny & June,
Rings of fire burnin' with you,*

*I wanna walk the line,
Walk the line,
'Till the end of time,
I wanna love,
Love ya that much,
Cash it all in,
Give it all up,
When you're gone,
I wanna go too,
Like Johnny & June,*

*Like Johnny & June,
More than life itself,
No-one else,
This here is promise,
They don't make love like that anymore,
Is that too much to be askin' for,*

*I wanna love like Johnny & June,
Rings of fire burnin' with you,
I wanna walk the line,
Walk the line,
'Till the end of time,
I wanna love,
Love ya that much,
Cash it all in,
Give it all up,
When you're gone,
I wanna go too,
Like Johnny & June,*

*Like Johnny & June,
And when we're gone,
There'll be no tears to cry,
Only memories of our lives,
They'll remember, remember,
A love like that.*

I Love You Mother! Rest In Peace.
