“ There are so many that come to mind when I think of Jodie but the biggest of all was her friendship. Of all the friends I have had in my lifetime she was one that was always loyal, compassionate, and so kind. She was also full of humor and feisty lol. There are a lot of stories I will never share cause that was our pact lol (oooohhhh the stories). All the pics, notes, and songs were use to sing and dance to at each other's houses I will forever cherish. She loved her family especially that new grand baby. I know she is looking down right now watching over her family. Love you my partner in crime, sisters from another mother, my best friend..Fly high baby girl!!
