“ Tina and I would stay at Nana and Pops house Joey was always making us laugh after Pop banged all the pots and pans together waking up the entire house. Those were some of the best memories. Sending Mama Jackie and her family my deepest love and condolences praying for solace during this holiday season. They are never truly gone from us this after all is just kind of like an intermission on the show of life they go to help prepare a place for us because at the end of our show it will be standing room only when we are all reunited in heaven. Love you Always Deadre
