“ Jay and Teena,
We sorrow with you in the loss of your wonderful father. You, Jay, are a living testimony to the legacy he left you. These days will be hard but The Lord is our Rock and an Ever Present help in the time of need. We love you all and we WILL be out to see you soon. Jay, our dads have met in heaven and are talking all about mechanic work and doing some fishing together!
Much love,
Donna and Clyde McDowell and Aunt Leona

“ Daddy Harris, you were so good to everybody. You will be greatly missed. I know however that you are in heaven with your precious wife. I remember so much of my life with the Harris family. Angie has been one of my best friends and Eric married one of my other best friends. My ties run deep. I love you all.
