“ To Jayne and John Jr., John was a neighbor and a friend. Didn't see him often but he always spoke and asked how we were doing. I know that he loved his family and always offered to help me if ever needed
He will be missed.

“ I moved to La Fayette 2 years ago. John stopped by to introduce himself. Showed me around his collections and his farms. When I asked “John why do you still work so hard when you should be enjoying life?” He said I want to leave something for my kids. John loved to talk about his many cows and the new land he bought. John will be missed!

“ I was privileged to know and work with John for many years in the 60s and 70s. He was fun to be around and worked hard on any job he did. He loved talking about his farm ,his calfs and other animals on his farm. He got so much pleasure farming. It's been years since I saw John but thought of him many times. Rip now . Your job was well done.
