“ I only met him once through Cennie and his grandkids. He let my kids sit in his antique car. Such a nice man. Even invited my kids to go swimming with them. I've only heard great things about him. It's sad to hear about his passing. May the Lord be with his family and loved ones during this trying time.

“ John Benjamin, or J.B., as I called him was a wonderful neighbor and friend. If I needed something done around the house or in the yard, he was always ready and willing to help. When he was on the road, his wife, Glenda, and I would run around and usually go out to eat for lunch. He always seemed to know when we were feeding our faces because he would call right as we were starting to eat. He even shamed us so much for buying a dozen of Krispy Kreme doughnuts that Glenda and I were only able to eat one each. We took the rest of them and gave them away. So whenever we passed the doughnut store we just had to think of what J.B. would say and kept on driving. He was a fun person to be around and I will miss him greatly. One day we will meet again, J.B. In the mean time, rest in God's arms. Love you much, Debbie Beagles
