“ I’m sorry for your loss.
I’m someone he new in Kansas City in the mid 60’s.
I wished I was able to see him again before he passed.
I was just a baby then, and would of loved to of gotten to know him.
I was told he was a sweet guy.
Keeping you in my thoughts and prayers in this difficult time.

“ I met Johnny for the first time in 1972. Then in 2013 he came to my office wanting a job driving. When he came to work for us he was one of the best employees anyone could have. He was always helping others and cared for you and not himself. We will always have good memories of Johnny.
