“ I'll never forget Joe.He was a very nice guy.I got to pick him up on our church van a few times and he always enjoyed the ride.One time going over a speed hump he actually said YeeHa!....like he was riding a horse or something. He pointed out to my husband several places he remembered and yards he had mowed.I will also never forget when his daughter...Sister Alice would sing his favorite song.I've Been Redeemed...this must have been his personal testimony. He would get so emotional hearing it.And would be happy in the spirit.He will be missed. I'm jealous because he got to see our Saviour,Jesus,before I did. Praying for the family.
