“ I remember when she first came to Chickamauga and she had married by cousin Arbie Brooks. Being from France , she was homesick. We lived across the street and my mom would talk to her a lot and encourage her. She was a very sweet person.

“ Josie was my boss for over 10 years. I loved her dearly she was such a great role model and dear friend. She taught me so much while working with her. In family and work. I really regret we lost touch. You will be missed. I will be praying for comfort for her family during this difficult time.
