Joyce was a beautiful spirit. A neighbor of mine on Bennett Rd. for so many years and a dear friend. Such a good friend to my mother during her illness..Always there and willing to help anytime I asked her for anything..You are in heaven now with so many that left before you..I know they welcome you with open arms..Rest in peace Joyce.

“ My beautiful Aunt Joyce, I love and miss you so much. I treasure all the memories, laughter, and conversations we had together. (And our spitting contests were epic.) You've been my inspiration and beacon of encouragement and positivity. Whenever I needed a listening ear, you were there....cheering me on. You were like a mother to me and I cherish you.
