“ Jo was my exercise buddy at RUMC until I moved away from Ringgold. She was a gentle but strong person. I was amazed at her perseverance to always push forward. During our ride to and from exercise class, she talked often and lovingly about her Brittney. She missed her son Shane and it seemed that her grief over losing him was only tempered by her love and faith in Christ. And of course, I would be remiss not to mention how she doted on her little dog, Baby. She will surely be missed.

“ Dear Sweet Jo has had those wings and a halo waiting for her. She cared for our Mom and Dad as if she was their Daughter and we will be forever grateful. I'll be praying for God to comfort her sweet Brittany in her grief.

Jo was unbelievably kind, patient, and caring while she cared for Mom and Dad. She'll be missed by many at RUMC.
