“ I loved your mom---one of the most wonderful women I have ever known. I will always remember her smile, calm demeanor, and above all her faith!

“ I first met Juanita in 1992, in a snow storm in Michigan. She and Downs made the trip up Atlanta several times servicing our test equipment. They became good friends, and over the years, I learned alot from Downs about WW2, and after his passing, stayed in contact with Juanita via snailmail cards and weekly phone calls. They almost always ended up talking about food! (I think I gained 10# just over the phone, LOL!!) We would talk about family, as I lost my mom and dad over the years, and she was always most gracious and kind with her support. But tears aside, I always felt like the calls were a part of my life that I'll always treasure, and getting her to laugh was my number one goal!!
I'll miss her, and I'm sorry that She and Downs never got the chance to meet my parents and family, but knowing their faith in GOD, and ours, we'll meet someday in Heaven where we all be together for eternity.
GOD Bless you all.
