“ I have a lot of memories of Juanita from years ago, haven't seen her in quite a few years but was saddened to hear about her passing, we were pregnant with our first child at same time and bet who would give Birth first, I won, my son was born April 9 th and and her daughter may 1th, those were good ole days.

“ She was always up for a road trip to the Smoky Mountains, Cherokee, or Tunica.
She was known, jokingly, as (The Warden in the family) because she would always try to keep everyone in line---LOL.
We all loved her!
She was always telling jokes.
She was a HUGE Alabama Football Fan and she also loved Dirt track racing.
I will miss her greatly but knowing she is in a better place is comforting to me.
I LOVE YOU AUNT JUANITA! ❤️
