Tribute Wall

“ Being Charlie Moore's granddaughter came with many privileges, and one of them was knowing Juanita. She was always ready with a warm smile and a hug, and if you were lucky, some Mexican cornbread, too. It was a blessing to know her. Praying for comfort and peace for all who love her.

*My grandsons were just playing with their kitchen and one of them fixed a carrot cupcake which got me to thinking of Juanita and her carrot cake
I am do sorry to hear of her passing
I worked until August 1986 when I left to have my daughter
I have thought of her many times over the years when I would try to duplicate her Mexicsn cornbread
Juanita was a very special person
