“ I am so sorry that Mimi (Julia) has passed. She was a very dear to me. I've missed her for a long time , since she moved away from Toccoa but she has always stayed tucked inside my heart. I have many happy, funny and sad memories that I will cherish forever. Sonny, Regina, Heather, Lauren and other family members please know my heart hurts for you. She meant so much to me and we shared many laughs, tears and talks. She will always hold a very special place in my heart and I am a better person learning about life from her. She was a very giving person and was always there for her family, friends, myself and my daughters. You are all in my thoughts and prayers. Roll Tide Mimi! .
