“ My brother, Tyler
The memories we share between you, myself and Jordan will live on with me for the rest of my life. We went through so much together - the good, the bad - all of it - we went through it all. I refuse to think of the bad though, as there were so many good memories. From all of us watching scary movies - one in particular that I remember most, The Poltergeist, which I'll never forget - you were so scared by that clown on there and I was laughing so hard I peed my pants lol all those times we'd all be playing outside, riding bikes, to you and Jord getting stuck in a tree. And even one super embarrassing memory for you and myself lol I won't share here, we can keep that between you, me and Jord. More time was spent with you than anyone, and I'll never forget those times. Ever. It's so hard to put into words how unbelievable it is to me that you're gone. I know I hadn't seen you in a long time, and I hate that - but it never changed the fact that you were my brother. You were there when people who should've been were not. You accepted me as I was and am. I love you.
Love always, your Sis — Jess ❤️

“ I want to say that i am so sorry for the loss of such a intelligent young man who is gone way to quickly. I met Justin at BK around the end of March. He always made us laugh and we are all gonna miss that person we could count on to go above and beyond and also keep us smiling. Love you Justin my heart goes out to his family. May God heal your hearts and minds and put your worries and stress to rest and may he offer comfort in this time.
