“ Kailey was my very first best friend when I started high school we hung out everyday she made my life so much better then it was at home she was always the first to know everything about me we rode the same bus and it never failed that we'd sit next to each other I'll never forget the time I had to go to dfcs I cried cause I didn't know if I was gonna be able to see her again until I went to a group home and the first time I saw her my face lit up like a Christmas tree I'm so proud of all the accomplishments she made in her life and I know that she's no longer in pain I'm gonna miss you so much

“ I did not know Kailey personally, but we had a few classes together throughout highschool. I remember her being extremely kind and a little quiet. I always admired her and just wanted to get to know her. She had one of the prettiest smiles. Sadly we never really talked (social anxiety on my part) And I'll regret this for the rest of my life. I know I missed out on getting to know an AMAZING person. I'll be praying for this family!

“ Oh Kailey. First off, I just want to tell you how much I love you. And to apologize for not visiting as much as I could have. I will forever remember all the times we had together. The summer I babysat Holt and Jasmine with Missy we got so close. And as Sherry said in her tribute, you were shy to everyone who wasn't lucky enough to know you, but once you cracked that shell you were so bubbly and full of life. I'm glad as your cousin I saw that side. We laughed and took photos, went to the Lookouts game, let you do our hair, even dyed our hair with Koolaid, did all kinds of gymnastic type poses for more photos, messed with Caleb and hacked his phone any chance we got, and so much more. I even ate a lightening bug on a dare. I'll miss you forever but I will always cherish all the times we spent together and the above favorite memories I listed that I will always hold dear to my heart. Fly high beautiful. Until we meet again. □

“ I have so many memories of you it's hard to choose which one. You were like my daughter before I had my own. Then when Jasmine you two were always together. She was like your real life barbie doll. You always wanted to dress her up and do her hair. For everyone else you were this beautiful shy girl. For us you never stopped talking. You had a wonderful sense of humor that I wish the world could have seen. Your creativity never ceased to amaze me. I always wanted what you were into making at the time. I was always so proud and confident in you. You always put in full effort into everything you did and accomplished. You were so strong willed and pain was almost nothing to you. I remember being amazed at the fact that you barely flinched when getting a piercing that was normally painful. I'm going to miss you more than you can imagine. I love you Kailey.
