“ My beloved sister, I will always remember your beautiful smile, your contagious laughter, your big heart and your love of your family. You always loved animals, from horses, to parakeets to guard dogs. You had the most viscous dogs of anyone I know. You enjoyed flowers and you seemed to be always looking for the next special gift to give to those in your life. You were independent to the core and self sufficient to the max, but always managed to love deeply and completely.
